Docket Text:

ENDORSED ORDER: "Whether a plaintiff has standing to prosecute an antitrust claim is a question of law." Jes Properties, Inc. v. USA Equestrian, Inc., 458 F.3d 1224, 1228 (11th Cir. 2006). Due to the unique procedural history of this case, which is before the Court after being remanded from the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation, the dispositive motions deadline expired before the threshold issue of standing could be resolved. Defendants raise significant standing issues in their Motion for Bench Trial and Bifurcation [62]; however, the Court declines to hold a bench trial on standing prior to the jury trial, as suggested by Defendants in the Motion. Rather, the Court determines that it is appropriate to re-open the dispositive motions deadline for the limited purpose of addressing the threshold issue of Plaintiffs' standing. The parties have until and including August 14, 2015, to file dispositive motions, limited to the issue of standing. Any responses in opposition are due August 31, 2015. No reply briefs will be allowed. All deadlines imposed in the Court's Case Management and Scheduling Order [30] remain in place. Accordingly, Defendants' Motion for Bench Trial and Bifurcation [62] is denied. Signed by Judge Virginia M. Hernandez Covington on 7/15/2015. (KNC)
